Along with the application completed in full, each applicant is to submit a typewritten 500-word essay. The essay should be entitled “Why I should be chosen for the PTO Scholarship”. The Archie School Counselor will accept your application and essay that is due by the fourth Wednesday in April of the graduating year. The PTO Executive Board will examine each application and make the final decision based on over-all performance. Upon receiving proof of enrollment from the chosen applicant’s choice of College/Technical School a check in the amount of $250.00 will be paid to the chosen College/Technical School.
